

NINE

Spring 2002

90 Miles off Broadway and Director Guy Anthony present "Nine," the 1982 Tony Award-winner for best musical and score. The cast of "Nine," consists of a talented ensemble of one man, 16 women and four boys.

The story of "Nine" involves the life of 40-year-old Guido Contini, an Italian who directs films. Guido cannot be satisfied with just one woman. So, in addition to his wife, Luisa, Guido has a veritable stable of women, including Carla and Claudia. Suffering from lack of inspiration for his next film, Guido is haunted by his sexual initiation at age 9 by Sarraghina, and the punishment he received afterward by his mother and the school nuns.
