

The Case Of The MURDERING MICROPHONE

90
MILES OFF BROADWAY
PRESENTS

A Musical Mystery Dinner Theater Event
by Joe Bevilacqua

50% of all proceeds will be donated to
"A Home for The Arts, a Project of the Arts Community"

Audiences were taken back to 1941 when they enter the Casa Mia Restaurant in Highland, NY, to be part of the 90 Miles Off Broadway production of The Case of the Murdering Microphone, on Friday, November 7 and Saturday, November 8, at 7:00pm, and Sunday, November 9, at 5:30 pm. (Doors opened a half-hour before the show.)

The premise of the play was that The Highland Murder Mystery Club was meeting to honor Poughkeepsie Pete Polanski, Famous Gumshoe, played by Bevilacqua, with a radio dramatization of his most famous case, complete with sound effects. Just as the radio drama begins, someone in the room was killed and Poughkeepsie Pete had to solve the real murder live on the air with the help of the audience.